4. Information

Have you completed Steps A through E listed on Iana's website? Please share more about your situation, what led you to seek out a loan, and any other relevant information.

How and why did you decide to pursue this program of study? Please explain.

Every field of study poses ethical challenges on both an individual and systemic level. What are some of these ethical challenges in your preferred field of study, and how would you respond to them?

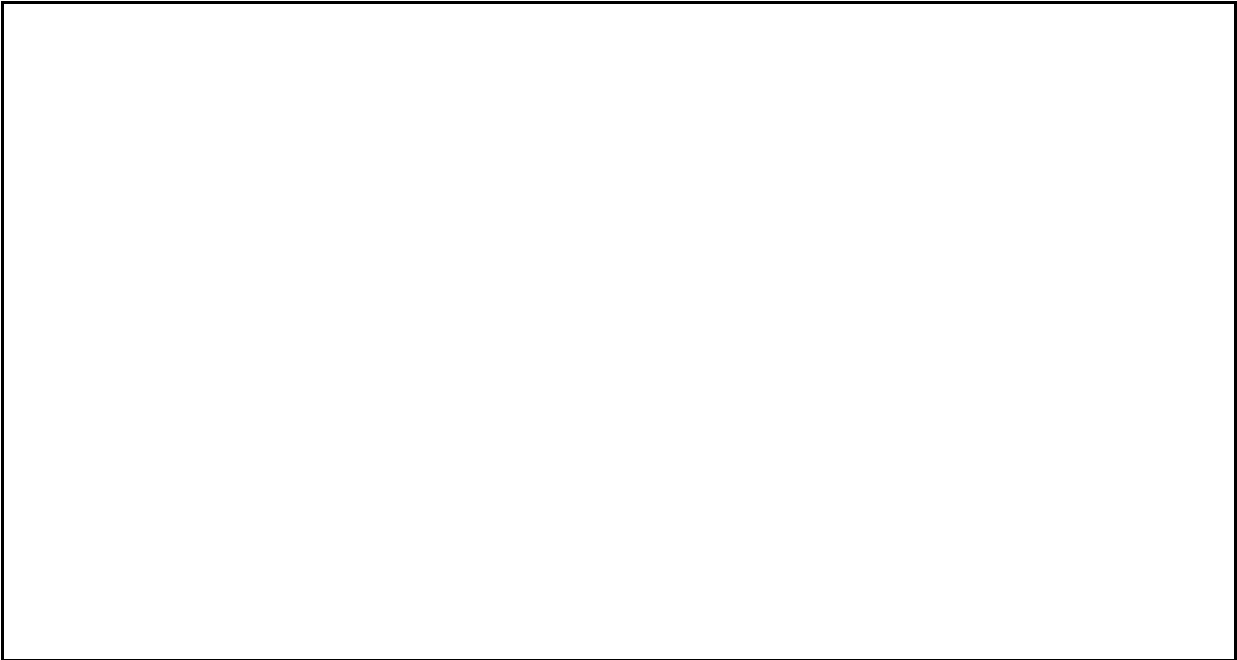

What is your vision for what you will accomplish through your field of study?

What types of books (e.g. genre, titles, authors) do you enjoy reading, and why?

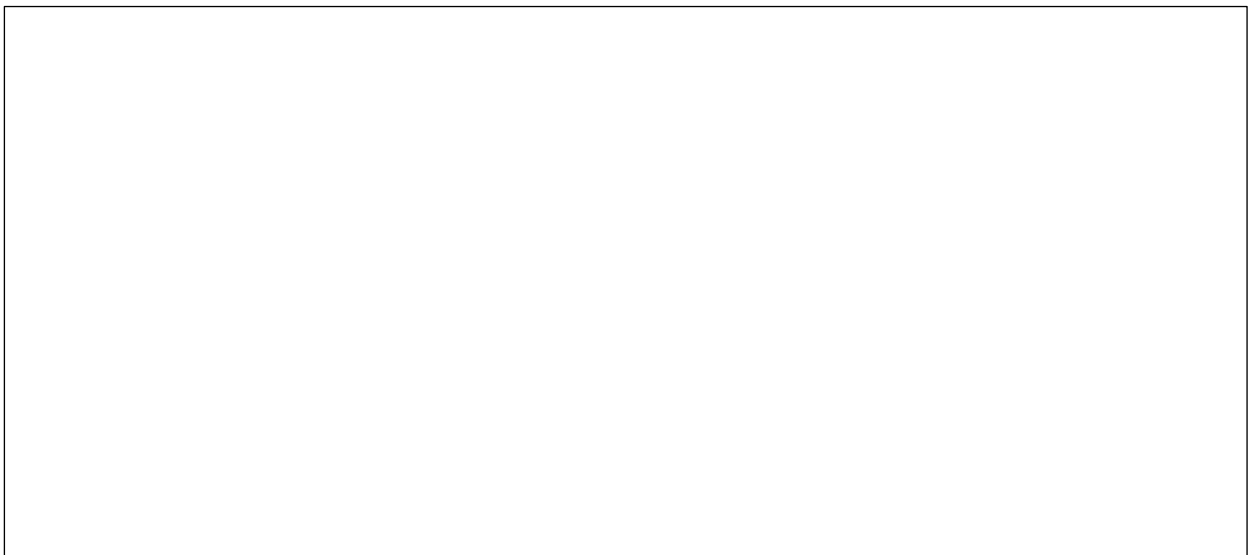

Have you previously tried to avoid taking loans?

Iana aims to offer God-centred community financial services, for the common good. Are you involved in your local community? Do you volunteer? Please explain.

Grassroots, holistic economic reform is some of the most important work on Earth, and has the potential to positively affect every other aspect of our lives and our world. Please share your views on the modern economic system (e.g. interest/usury, debt, credit cards, banks etc.). Have you considered switching from a bank to a credit union? Have you considered canceling or minimizing credit card use?

Iana recommends each person consult qualified scholarship, conduct independent research, and pray for guidance to make educated decisions regarding what knowledge to take, from whom, and what actions to take based on that knowledge. Have you ever studied Islamic Law (Fiqh)? Please explain.

Have you completed any financial literacy training? If so, please describe.

Are you interested in learning more about Islamic and modern economics?

How did you hear about Iana?

Thank you for your application. Please submit this form, with required attachments, to applications@ianafinancial.org. May God grant you guidance, success, and facilitation. Ameen.
Peace.

Bismillah.
